

is now recruiting for the following positions:

Health Educators - Senior Support Officer

£25,000 pro rata; 3% pension contribution - 21hrs per week

End 31st March 2023

Flexible working hours negotiable

You will be supporting the HEPS Project Manager in the overall service delivery and performance management of Health Educators. Contributing to the co-ordination and communication of the Health Educator's team across the borough to achieve high-quality outcomes for local diverse communities to access health, services, support and adopting a healthy lifestyles. We are looking for someone with experience in supervising and co-ordinating a team, with exceptional record keeping and reporting skills, interpersonal and listening skills as well as experience in establishing and maintaining positive relationships both internally and externally.

Complete application & return by email to: email@brentcarerscentre.org.uk

Well-Being Outreach Worker x 2

£25,000 pro rata; 3% pension contribution - 28hrs per week

12 month Contract

Your role will be to work with GP's to improve on the identification of patients with a Serious Mental Illness and carers to increase the take up of Health Checks and flu jabs within the practice. We are looking for individuals with excellent interpersonal and communication skills to work and liaise with Practice Managers, Social Prescribers and GP's. You will be expected to make community links and undertake outreach activities to raise awareness on the benefits of Health Check and flu jabs for the targeted patients in the community. You should possess exceptional record keeping, writing reports and case study skills, alongside good interpersonal and listening skills.

Complete application & return by email to: email@brentcarerscentre.org.uk

Do you have computer skills that you could share with others who do not?

We are looking for a Digital Champion

Working flexibly part-time £11.05ph – up to 7hrs Weekly

Successful candidates will be required to have:

Experience of digital skills, and operating of smart phones, laptops and computers, downloading apps, setting up emails, internet etc

Experience of supporting people on a 1/2/1 basis or in small groups desirable!

Good communications and enjoy teaching people new skills Learning to use digital technology is becoming more crucial now, it can save people time and money, make people feel more connected and better informed. Despite this, millions of people have never been online. We are looking for individuals to help support patients on a 1/2/1 basis and in small groups to learn how to use technology to improve their health & wellbeing.

Complete application & return by email to: email@brentcarerscentre.org.uk

For full details and to download an application pack for either of the above vacancies, please visit our website: www.brentcarerscentre.org.uk/jobs

Interviews for all of the above jobs will be conducted on an ongoing basis until we find the right candidate for this role, and as such we advise you to make your application as soon as you are able, to increase the chance of being considered for an interview.

Charity Registration No.: 1066691 Company Registration No.: 3354038